

We need more diversity in ideas and programming, not less. Allowing a few companies to monopolize our airways limits the variety of material/ideas/views we receive. Control of the media should be spread over many hands, not just a few. Thank you.